

Volunteer Openings

Independent Living/Residential Care Facility Volunteer Openings

Love to sing?

Enjoy music and singing? Come and volunteer your time to sing in one of our many choirs.

Is your talent playing the piano?

If piano playing is your thing, we have several volunteer opportunities where you can show off your skills. The Men's Glee Club and the Treble Clef groups both need an accompanist!

Like to crochet?

Get together monthly and help crochet much-needed prayer shawls. You get to do what you love the most and the shawl gives comfort to those in need.

Is sewing your passion?

Come to the E Building sewing room and help make cancer pillows. Have fun visiting with JKV residents as you work on your projects.

Like to visit with others?

The Health Services Marketing department is looking for volunteers who would like to visit JKV residents that are in local hospitals. You do need your own transportation. The rewards are numerous, visits are welcomed!

To find out more information about the opportunities listed above, please call Michele Rusinko, volunteer manager, at 816-347-2318.

Volunteer Openings

Village Care Center Volunteer Openings

Visitors Needed

Give some of your spare time and visit a resident at the VCC who would love a little company. You set up your own hours.

Like the sound of the big brass band?

The VCC activity department is looking for volunteers to come once a month on a Saturday to escort residents to the main dining room so they can enjoy the wonderful tunes of days gone by.

Feel a need to get out of the Village for a spell?

Become a medical escort for our residents in the Village Care Center, which is something that would be helpful to others and a breath of fresh air for yourself! Hours vary. Transportation provided

Every season is ice cream season!

The Ice Cream Parlor needs your help to scoop the yummy creamy stuff so others can enjoy it too. We are looking to expand our hours to include some early evenings. Currently need volunteers for 4 to 7 p.m. Monday through Friday. We are also in need of volunteers from 1 to 4p.m. the second Sunday of each month.

Become a jack of all trades: The VCC is looking for volunteers that would like to come in on a regular basis and help out the activity department staff by interacting with the residents. Make someone happy and everything in your life seems better too! Hours vary.

Do you like to walk?

Then consider being an escort for our salons at the VCC. You will escort residents from their room to the salons in same building so they can get their hair wash and set.

To find out more information about any Village Care Center openings, please contact Michele Rusinko, volunteer manager, at 816-347-2318.

Volunteer Openings

Auxiliary Volunteer Openings

Do you know about house ware goods?

The Thrift Shop is in need of someone who can look at donated house ware goods and determine its value. They need your expertise!

Golf and Groceries needs your help!

What a great way to spend some of your free time – volunteering at the Golf and Groceries gift shop located right next to the golf course entrance! This opportunity provides you with lots of interesting people to meet and help.

Have you always wanted to be a bagger?

The Thrift Shop is in need of individuals to bag the goodies after they are purchased. Hours vary.

Have fun and enjoy being around others at the same time!

Volunteers are needed to stock, sort and help customers. Have fun helping others find a great bargain – and find some for yourself, too!

Are you good with repairs?

Use your talents to help fix small items that are donated to the Thrift Shop. No job is too small. Assistance is available.

Quilters Unite!

We are looking for those who are experienced in the art of quilting. We are working on some awesome projects. Have fun, use your talents and make friends all at the same time. Hours vary.

Expert on donated goods?

The Thrift Shop is in need of help to determining the value of new donations. It's fun to see what others are giving away! Help us help the Village!

Like to wait on customers?

The Thrift Shop is looking for volunteers to help wait on others as they come to the shop to find their latest treasure! We'd love you to come over and give your advice!

Sales and meeting new people, what more fun do you want?

We currently have numerous openings in our gift shops around the Village. We need help on just about any day of the week, mornings or afternoon. It's a fun way to meet new people and check out our new merchandise!

Call Michele Rusinko, volunteer manager, at 816-347-2318 for more information.

Volunteer Openings

Village Hospice Volunteer Openings

Variety is the Spice of Life

If you are an individual who likes variety, there are opportunities for you to lend a helping hand with various activities. Examples include arranging and/or delivering flowers to patients and helping with events and more.

A Special Calling

There are numerous opportunities in which you can make a difference with a hospice patient and/or their caregiver. Activities include: visiting, reading, playing games, helping a patient write his/her memoir, providing a caregiver with a restful break, running errands and providing comfort to the patient and/or families during the 11th hour. Working with patients of hospice care is a special calling. If you have that gifting, this opportunity might be the right fit for you.

For more information about becoming a Village Hospice volunteer contact Priscilla Rhoades, Village Hospice volunteer manager, at 816-347-2578